

Spiritual Enrichment Program, Milwaukee presents

Discourses on "Sadhana Panchakam" and
"Vision of God according to Gita" by Swami Prakashanandaji of Chinmaya Mission

SEP

15 - 18 DECEMBER 2009 (Tuesday - Friday)

We are pleased to announce the visit of H.H. Swami Prakashanandaji, disciple of H.H. Swami Chinmayanandaji to Milwaukee from 15th to 18th December 2009. Swami Prakashanandaji is a monk belonging to Chinmaya Mission, Trinidad. Born and brought up in the West, he was inspired by Swami Chinmayanandaji in 1991 and spent several years in India studying Vedanta and Sanskrit. Since 1997 Swamiji has been engaged in Chinmaya Mission work at Trinidad as Brahmachari and later as a monk. He conducts Jnana Yajnas and Satsangs in the Caribbean, US, Canada and UK. A very melodious singer and eloquent speaker, Swamiji captivates the audience wherever he goes. Due to his untiring selfless service, devotion and dynamism, the Chinmaya Mission Trinidad center has grown by leaps and bounds.

On 15th, 16th and 17th December, Swamiji will deliver discourses on "Sadhana Panchakam"—a composition by Sri Adi Sankaracharya. On 18th, Swamiji will speak on the topic of "Vision of God according to Bhagavad Gita". Please attend and benefit from the discourses and satsangs.
